

The Articles of Confederation—The Challenge of Sovereignty

Listed below are a series of facts about the Articles of Confederation. First, explain the significance of each term. Then, examine the list, divide the items into three or four categories, and label the categories. Finally, write a thematic sentence that states or implies a relationship among the categories and the lesson title.

Facts about the Articles of Confederation

- | | |
|--|---|
| a. No separate executive | l. Treaty of Paris, 1783 |
| b. Northwest Ordinances of 1785 and 1787 | m. Federal aid to education (Northwest Ordinance, 1785) |
| c. One vote per state | n. No national currency |
| d. No federal courts | o. Members often failed to attend Congress |
| e. Shays' Rebellion | p. Inability to protect settlers from Indians |
| f. British retention of forts in Northwest | q. Barbary pirates raided shipping |
| g. No regulation of interstate commerce | r. Inability to repay French loans |
| h. Boundary disputes between states | s. Spain's denial of right of deposit at New Orleans |
| i. No power to tax | t. Little trade with Britain |
| j. States taxed each other's goods | |
| k. Kept the states together | |

Categories

Write here your organizing sentence to state or imply a relationship among the categories you developed above and the lesson title.

The Articles of Confederation—The Challenge of Sovereignty

Listed below are a series of facts about the Articles of Confederation. First, explain the significance of each term. Then, examine the list, divide the items into three or four categories, and label the categories. Finally, write a thematic sentence that states or implies a relationship among the categories and the lesson title.

Facts about the Articles of Confederation

- | | |
|--|---|
| a. No separate executive | l. Treaty of Paris, 1783 |
| b. Northwest Ordinances of 1785 and 1787 | m. Federal aid to education (Northwest Ordinance, 1785) |
| c. One vote per state | n. No national currency |
| d. No federal courts | o. Members often failed to attend Congress |
| e. Shays' Rebellion | p. Inability to protect settlers from Indians |
| f. British retention of forts in Northwest | q. Barbary pirates raided shipping |
| g. No regulation of interstate commerce | r. Inability to repay French loans |
| h. Boundary disputes between states | s. Spain's denial of right of deposit at New Orleans |
| i. No power to tax | t. Little trade with Britain |
| j. States taxed each other's goods | |
| k. Kept the states together | |

Categories

Write here your organizing sentence to state or imply a relationship among the categories you developed above and the lesson title.